TRADE AND DEVELOPMENT BOARD

GENERALIZED SYSTEM OF PREFERENCES

Scheme of Austria

Amendment

The Secretary-General of UNCTAD has received the following communication from the Permanent Mission of Austria:

"- With effect from 1 January 1992, the Republic of Albania has been included in the list of preference-receiving countries (Group I).

"- With effect from 1 March 1992, the Republic of Croatia and the Republic of Slovenia have been included in the list of preference-receiving countries (Group I).

"- With effect from 1 April 1992, the following countries are recognized as least developed countries and have been transferred into Group II of preference-receiving countries: Cambodia, Solomon Islands, Zaire and Zambia.

"- The changes in the Harmonized System which entered into force on 1 January 1992 have been implemented, as appropriate, in the Austrian GSP scheme; these changes did not have any substantive consequences.

"- The changes in the Notes on the back of certificates of origin (Form A) and on Form APR ("Notes (1992)") have been incorporated into Austrian law.

"- The validity of the Austrian GSP scheme has been extended, without substantive changes, for one more year, i.e. until 31 December 1992."
